Fisher House Newsletter Sunday 31 August 2025

THE FISHER ROOM

We are in the midst of the redecoration of the Fisher Room, while also making improvements to the Student Kitchen. In addition, both the public loos, one at a time, are being completely redecorated. Because of these works, the Fisher Room and Kitchen are out of use until Friday 26 September.

OPENING HOURS OF FISHER HOUSE

Until the works are completed, the revised opening hours of the Chaplaincy will be 9 am - 6 pm. The Chaplaincy will be closed on Saturday 13 September.

SUNDAY 5.30 PM MASS

The Sunday 5.30 pm Mass will restart on Sunday 21 September. The sole morning Sunday Mass at 10.30 am will continue until and including Sunday 28 September.

ALUMNI WEEKEND MASS

Sunday 28 September, 10.30 am

We look forward to welcoming back alumni to their Chaplaincy. There will be a reception afterwards

NICAEA LECTURES

2025 is the 1,700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, the first of the Ecumenical Councils, and a fruit of which is the creed we confess every Sunday. To mark this anniversary, the Chaplaincy has being enjoying a series of lectures since January. Each lecture is at 6 pm in the Chapel, with a reception afterwards. Here are the lectures for Michaelmas Term:

16 October: 'One holy, catholic, and apostolic Church' by Dr Mary McCaughey.

27 October: 'I believe in the Holy Spirit' by Rt Revd David Oakley.

10 November: 'Looking forward to the Resurrection' by Prof Janet Soskice.

24 November: 'The life of the world to come' by Fr Thomas Joseph White.
