ANNUAL GILBEY MASS - TRINITY COLEGE CHAPEL

This Monday (20 November), 6 pm

This is the twenty-fifth year since Mgr Gilbey's death, the Catholic Chaplain to Cambridge for 100 terms. The Dean of Trinity is generously allowing the annual Extraordinary Form Requiem Mass for him to be celebrated in the college chapel. It will be a High Mass, followed by a drinks reception. I am very grateful to Revd Ann Strauss, the Chaplain of Trinity, for her welcome and kindness.

GHOST STORY NIGHT

This Thursday (23 November), 8 pm

Ghost stories as Christmas beckons are a Cambridge tradition. Relax in the Great Chamber with a drink, a tale by M. R. James - and be pleasurably frightened.

ALL-NIGHT CHRIST THE KING VIGIL

This Saturday (25 November)

Beginning with a guided Holy Hour at 8 pm, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed through the night so we can adore, intercede, and mark well the end of the Church's Year and the beginning of the great season of Advent.

Mgr Mark Langham, our chaplain from 2014-20, created a Christmas Crib in the classic Neapolitan style. If you would like to help put it up, please e-mail Fr Paul. It would be lovely to have it in place during the final week of term (the week after next).
