FISHER HOUSE

The Cambridge University Catholic Chaplaincy at Fisher House is the spiritual home for all Catholic members of the University, from undergraduates to Fellows.

Fisher House is open daily between 8.00am and 10.00pm (during term time). For the access code and interior access card, please contact Fr Paul.

The Chapel of St John Fisher is the heart of the Chaplaincy. It is open all day.

The Fisher Room and its kitchen provide a social space for undergraduates and graduates to meet and relax during the day, with free tea and coffee.

The Fisher House Library houses an extensive collection of books of theology, scriptural study, history, and literature. The roof terrace can be accessed from it.

WEEKLY EVENTS AT FISHER HOUSE

- Sunday, 4pm Spiritual Reading Group – led by Sr Ann.
- Monday, 8.00pm Scripture Group – an opportunity to study – both theologically and pastorally - the Sacred Scriptures with Fr Albert and Fr Greg (Novice Master of the Dominicans).
- Tuesday, 7.00pm Apologia – the signature weekly event run by the Fisher Society. Drop by, as you can, for a 7pm complimentary homecooked dinner, an 8am talk and 9pm Compline. The Black Swan Bar is open afterwards. Topics and speakers announced in newsletters and via social media.
- Thursday, 1.40pm A Shot of Theology – as you enjoy a buffet lunch after Mass, Fr Paul and Henri will give a 10 min talk on an aspect of Catholic doctrine and life. This term: the Sunday Creed.
- Thursday, 6.15pm Taizé – a reflective time of candlelit prayer in the Chapel with songs and chants.
- Friday Afternoon Sr Ann's Open House (from 3.30pm–5.30pm) - a chance to relax over tea, homemade cakes, and the best conversation in Cambridge! Help with baking always appreciated. All most warmly welcome.

BLACK SWAN BAR

Open on Tuesdays after Apologia and on Fridays, from 8pm 'til late, in the Fisher Room from 8.00pm (and other advertised times). It is the best – and cheapest – bar in Cambridge, stocked with a wide variety of beers and spirits. Contact Catherine Darlison (cged2).
