NICAEA LECTURES

2025 is the 1,700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, the first of the Ecumenical Councils, and a fruit of which is the creed we confess every Sunday. To mark this anniversary, the Chaplaincy has been enjoying a series of lectures since January. Each lecture is at 6 pm in the Chapel, with a reception afterwards. Here are the lectures for Michaelmas Term:

16 October: 'One holy, catholic, and apostolic Church' by Dr Mary McCaughey.

27 October: 'I believe in the Holy Spirit' by Rt Revd David Oakley.

10 November: Looking forward to the Resurrection' by Prof Janet Soskice.

24 November: The life of the world to come' by Fr Thomas Joseph White.
