MASS IN SELWYN COLLEGE CHAPEL

This Monday (11 March), 6 pm

All are welcome. Mass will be followed by a drinks reception. Our thanks to Rev'd Dr Arabella Milbank Robinson, Dean of Chapel and Chaplain of Selwyn, for welcoming us.

INTERNATIONAL DINNER & CEILIDH

This Tuesday (12 March), 7 pm

Please bring a national or favourite dish for us all to share in the Fisher Room. The ceilidh will begin at 8 pm. Supported by live musicians, a ceilidh is a dance anyone can enjoy as together we are guided through steps and movements. A fitting end to a great term.

THIS FRIDAY OF LENT

Two Masses: 7.30 am & 7.15 pm (sung and by candlelight). At 1.10 pm there are the Stations of the Cross, an opportunity to enter into the Passion of Our Lord.

THANK YOU

This Sunday a new Committee of the Fisher Society will be elected. Therefore, it is time to thank the Fisher Society Committee of 2023 - 2024 for all that they have done to sustain and develop Catholic life in the Chaplaincy and at the University. Things happen because individuals step up and, together, give generously. After the first four busy weeks of Easter Term, the Committee gave us so many opportunities during Michaelmas and Lent, including (among many):

- ◇ A wonderful presence at the Fresher's Fair.
- ◇ Great meals every Tuesday at Apologia.
- ◇ The fantastic development of four soup kitchens a week for the homeless.
- ◇ Introduction of Cell Groups.
- ◇ Inter-religious conversations.
- ◇ Organising the Fisher Dinner on Saturday 15 June.

Good leadership is essential. The Fisher Society has been ably chaired by Ryan Lee, who has worked hard. His Sunday announcements, with a willingness to never dodge a comic possibility, will remain long in the Chaplaincy's memory. To all the Committee members - much of whose work remains hidden - thank you.
